

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
WESTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

vs.

KARIM ALI RASHID, AKA, KAREEM
RASHID,
Defendant.

CASE NO: 1:20-MJ-103

DETENTION ORDER

The defendant is charged with a felony involving possession or use of a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon. On the government's motion, the court held a detention hearing under the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The court concludes the defendant must be detained pending trial.

Based on the evidence presented and information of record, the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant's release would pose a risk of harm to others and the public.

In addition to the reasons more particularly stated on the record in open court at the detention hearing, the court finds that the defendant has a criminal record, including prior drug and weapons offenses; has a history of violence or use of weapons; is subject to a lengthy period of incarceration if convicted; has a propensity to harm or threaten harm to others; has failed to appear for court proceedings in the past; and conditions which restrict Defendant's travel, personal contacts, and possession of drugs, alcohol, and/or firearms; require reporting, education, employment, or treatment; or monitor Defendant's movements or conduct; or any combination of these conditions or others currently proposed or available (see 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c)), will not sufficiently ameliorate the risks posed if the defendant is released.

Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of the United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.
